Universal IAMHP Roster Training Overview 2023

CountyCare Health Plan is committed to improving the process for completing and maintaining the MCO roster submission process. The Illinois Association of Medicaid Health Plans (IAMHP) has outlined the requirements for their comprehensive universal roster that is submitted quarterly. To find more information on the Universal IAMHP Roster please visit: https://iamhp.net/providers.

The Provider Data Management team at CountyCare will provide live trainings focusing on the Universal IAMHP Roster. The goal of the training is for providers and their office administrative staff to better understand of the roster format and how to avoid common errors. The training will:
- Review the process for completing and maintaining the MCO roster submission process
- Provide education on available tools and resources for providers
- Discuss the impact of roster submission issues such as denials, delays, incorrect panel closures, etc.
- Include FAQ's regarding the standardized roster process
