Provider Lunch & Learn: New Provider Orientation

CountyCare Health Plan is pleased to host a new provider orientation for all contracted providers. During this webinar, attendees will receive an overview of the available tools and resources to support their success, including CountyCare's website and secure provider portal. Whether you are newly contracted, a new member of an established provider office, or simply looking for a refresher, this session is designed for you.

Register for the event below. If you have questions you'd like addressed during the presentation, please submit them in advance using the email address below. We will do our best to answer them during or after the session.
